Director's Notes

The challenge with "Director Notes" is how to share something interesting with the audience without giving the play away. The easiest way is to write about the setting of the story. The Rainmaker is set in either southwest Oklahoma or northwest Texas. It really doesn't matter which. The time, 1925, the very beginning of the dust bowl. Another easy way is to talk about the show is to introduce the people involved. The Curry family are farmers and are considered wealthy and successful within their community. The Sheriff and Deputy File are both competent law enforcement officers and Starbuck is just what you would think a snake-oil salesman would be. Finally the director can talk about the story itself. The Curry's are faced with a problem. They have a 27 year old spinster, Lizzie, in need of a husband. Lizzie has two possibilities. Either the upright Deputy File or the con-man Starbuck. Which will it be?

There, I have told you all about the show without telling you anything about it.

Enjoy!

Out of consideration to the actors and your fellow patrons, please turn off all cell telephones, pagers or other audible electronic devices before the show begins. No video recording or photography are allowed during any of our productions.

SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

ACT appreciates the generosity of businesses and individuals in the Ankeny area who help support productions. The cast and crew of The Rainmaker would like to thank the following people for their generous contributions to the show.

Ames Community Theatre (ACTORS) - costumes
Carmen's Flowers - floral arrangements
Flooring America - carpet
Jester Park Equestrian Center - stable props
Shirley Klingensmith - cot
Greg Leavengood - Starbucks boots and hat
Karen & Keith Pederson - desk chair
Up Tempo Music - bass drum
Joyce Allen (Lizzie Curry) has become a familiar name at ACT performing in Godspell, and Hankerin' Hillbillies, and as Mary Bailey in Its A Wonderful Life. She's also been seen at the Salisbury House, Urbandale Community Theatre, Drama Workshop and Ingersoll Dinner Theatre. In real life, she is a free lance writer, enjoys bicycling, aerobics, crafts and has two beautiful grandchildren. She works as a CMA at Iowa Retina Consultants.

Troy DeStigter (File) has performed in approximately 25 shows at ACT. He appeared in Hankerin' Hillbillies, A Christmas Carol and The Sensuous Senator this past season. Some of his favorite shows include Heaven Can Wait, Rumors, Wizard of Oz, and You Can't Take It With You. Troy has served on the Board of Directors at ACT for two separate terms. He enjoys collecting rock ‘n roll music record albums.

Monte Engh (H.C. Curry) is another familiar face at ACT. Credits include Bedful of Foreigners, Li'l Abner, You Can't Take it With You, Wizard of Oz, Dearly Departed, Hankerin' Hillbillies and Funny Money. Monte has served on ACT's Board of Directors for two terms. "Keeping it all together" is Monte's motto at ACT, at his Kum&Go workplace and at home when his wife Vicki lets him. Monte just completed his 7th full RAGBRAI - Talk about a bunch of "Liars and Con Men".

Greg Myers (Bill Starbuck) is making his ACT debut in The Rainmaker. This is his first role in several years and he is enjoying his experience here. His previous theatrical experience includes Steben's Children's Theatre and high school drama in Mason City and theater classes at Northern Iowa Area Community College. Greg's hobbies include tennis, music, concerts and movies. He is employed with YRC, Inc.

Scott Nielsen (Sheriff Thomas/Assistant Director) has been in The Phantom Tollbooth, Hankerin' Hillbillies and A Christmas Carol here at ACT. He also appeared in The Long Red Herring at the Ankeny Elk's Lodge. He is employed in the insurance industry and enjoys being a couch potato during college football season. This is Scott's first time experiencing the ins and outs of directing and is learning a lot about the behind the scenes action that it takes to put a show together.
Tom Miller (Jim Curry) most recently appeared on the ACT stage as Slovitch in Fools. His ACT debut was December 2008 appearing in A Christmas Carol. Before moving to Ankeny, he had appeared on stage at the Omaha Community Playhouse and at Kent, Washington. His favorite role was Virgil in Bus Stop. Tom has been married for 22 years to his wife Judy and likes spending time with her and their Boston Terrier, Abe. Tom's hobbies include photography, traveling and Nebraska football. He is an IT Data Analyst for John Deere Credit.

Kent Whitmore (Noah Curry) has entertained audiences on stages around the metro area including ACT, Ingersoll Dinner Theatre, Shoestring Productions, First Church Potluck Theatre and Ankeny Elks Lodge Theatre. He was recently seen playing Count Youskevitch in ACT's spring show Fools. His hobbies include TV trivia, standup comedy, impressions and youth ministry. Kent is a social worker at Broadlawns Medical Center.

Harold Mosier (Director) has been involved in all aspects of theater but says he prefers directing. Harold's favorite shows, after the current one, are last season's Hankerin' Hillbillies and the season before The Money In Uncle George's Suitcase both by Pat Cook and his 2007 Iowa Fringe Festival entry The Oldest Profession by Paula Vogel. He will be the director for ACT's February production of Every Little Crook and Nanny. Harold would like to thank ACT for this opportunity, the cast and crew for their efforts and mostly, you, the audience for your support.

Polly Taylor (Producer) has been working behind the scenes at ACT since the 1997 production of The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940's. Polly has appeared on stage in It's a Wonderful Life, The Oldest Profession and Marquis Crossing. Polly currently serves on the ACT Board of Directors and will serve as board's president this coming year. Polly is looking forward to directing Saturday Night at the Drive-In next August.

Amanda Atkinson (Stage Manager) is volunteering for her first time at ACT and has been a wonderful addition to the crew. She has been involved in plays at her church and participated in show choir for five years. Amanda is currently studying production at DMACC. She enjoys reading, traveling, and experiencing new things. Welcome to ACT, Amanda.

Several also have programs where they match hours an employee has volunteered with a dollar contribution. Pioneer, Meredith, Federal Home Loan Bank and MidAmerican Energy are just some of the companies that have provided such funding to ACT based on employees contributing and working with ACT. Please check with your employer to see if you could be taking advantage of these programs and help secure ACT financing.
